Bursaries

A limited number of bursaries of $100 or $200 each will be available as a contribution towards costs. Students and non-students with financial hardship who register by the Earlybird deadline will be eligible to apply, as indicated on the Registration Form. In addition, the Australian Partnership for Advanced Computing (APAC) has provided funds for bursaries for student users of the APAC facility who register by the Earlybird deadline. A signed letter is required from the supervisor (in the case of students) or from individuals themselves (for non-students) outlining very briefly why the bursary will be of assistance. This can be sent to the WATOC 2008 Congress Secretariat by conventional mail, by FAX, or can be scanned and then sent as an email attachment. Contact details are given towards the end of this document. Bursaries will be paid at the Congress to successful applicants.

Accompanying Persons

There is no registration fee for accompanying persons. Tickets for any specific social events in which accompanying persons wish to take part may be purchased through the associated participant's registration procedure.
